For the 2007-2008 school year, DigiPen Institute of Technology is offering scholarships to high school students who obtain a minimum of a 4 or a 5 on one of the following tests and at least a 5 on one of the following Advanced Placement (AP) subject tests:

1. Calculus AB or BC AND
2. Computer Science A or AB OR Physics C

Eligible applicants MUST have earned a 4 or a 5 on either one of the Calculus exams and a 4 or a 5 on either the Computer Science A/AB exam OR the Physics exam. At least one of the two test scores must be a 5.

The scholarships will cover 30 percent of total tuition costs at DigiPen for a four-year program. A maximum of 10 scholarships will be available this year. This scholarship is on a first come, first served basis.

Eligibility Rules:
- Students must be accepted and enrolled for admission to DigiPen to qualify for the scholarship.
- Students must be entering their first year at DigiPen.
- Students may only submit results of the AP exams, which they obtained in grades 9-12.
- Students must abide by the rules of the Scholarship program and maintain a specific level of academic performance in order to remain eligible for the scholarship in subsequent years.
- Students must have a cumulative 3.50 GPA upon high school graduation.
- Scholarships available to graduating seniors only (GED students are eligible).
- If AP scholarship approved, students are not eligible for other in-house scholarships including Careers That Work, Imagine America or MAP.
- Student must maintain a 3.0 GPA while attending DigiPen.
- Student must pass all attempted classes.
- Maintain a full-time course load for the fall and spring semesters (12 credits or more). Summer semester does not have a minimum credit load, but students must continue to maintain a 3.0 GPA or higher. Students in the final semester who do not require 12 credits to graduate will be exempted from this requirement.
- For summer semester, students can use this scholarship so long as they continue to maintain the 3.0 GPA requirements. There is no credit load minimum for the summer semester.
- Students must not be in violation of any of DigiPen’s Rules and Regulations.

To apply, applicants should complete this application and submit their official test scores to the DigiPen Financial Aid Office. Applicants may submit scores by fax or by mail to:

Attn: DigiPen Financial Aid Office
5001 150th Ave NE
Redmond, WA 98052
Phone: 425-895-4427
Fax: 425-558-0378

If there are more qualified applicants than scholarships available, scholarships will be awarded on a first-come, first-served basis. All scholarship applicants will be notified of the results in the order in which they've applied, been accepted, and enrolled.
