For the 2013 - 2014 school year, DigiPen Institute of Technology is offering a limited number of scholarships to incoming students who have demonstrated academic achievements and are likely to make a strong, positive impact in both the DigiPen community and their chosen field. Scholarships will be awarded up to $10,000.

The priority deadlines for this scholarship will be February 1, 2013 for students starting in Fall 2013. *If additional funds remain, students who apply after the priority deadline may be awarded scholarships.

Students who wish to apply for this scholarship should submit the following to the Financial Aid Office:

- Be already accepted or enrolled in a degree program at DigiPen Institute of Technology
- Essay of approximately 500 words typed and double – spaced on the following topic:

  How have games (video, board, dice, card, sports, etcetera) affected your life in a positive manner? In what ways do you foresee games being used for non-recreational purposes in our future? (“Non-recreational” would mean: for purposes other than fun, i.e. education, military, etc.)

- Copy of most recent transcripts; please make sure to provide a copy at the time of your application.
- Completed Academic Achievement Scholarship application.

To apply, applicants must complete the paper portion below along with their supporting documentation. Applications can be scanned and email, faxed, mailed, or brought into the Financial Aid Office:

DigiPen Institute of Technology
