

MOVING TO REDMOND CHECKLIST

This list is a suggested guide. Please add your specific needs and notes to aid in your transition to Redmond.

DONE	TO DO LIST		NOTES
	Find a Roommate (Roommate Locator Database)	 	The Roommate Agreement can be found with the Roommate Locator Database or on the Student Affairs Housing site.
	- Go over Roommate Agreement
	- Discuss who is responsible for doing what in apartment hunt
	- Decide who is bringing what for the apartment
	Arrange how your things will get to Redmond
	Make or get copies of personal documents (i.e. social security card, birth certificate) that you might need when you arrive
	Research banks in the Redmond area

DONE	#	PACKING LIST		NOTES
		Bathing Suit	  	Remember, almost everything you forget can be sent or bought once you get here. Don't worry too much about the little things.
		Bathrobe
		Belts
		Coats for different season (including one for rain!)
		Dress clothes (dresses, skirts, or dress pants)
		Hat, scarf, and gloves
		Jewelry (cufflinks, watch, earrings, etc.)
		Pajamas
		Pants and Shorts
		Shirts - long and short sleeves
		Shoes (sandals, sneakers, etc.)
		Socks
		Sweats (sweatshirt, sweatpants, etc.)
		Sweaters
		Toiletries
		Pictures from Home
		Camera
		Medications

DONE	APARTMENT HUNTING LIST		NOTES
	With your roommate(s), decide:
	- Amenities, size, and location area of apartment you want
	- Your price range
	Contact at least 5 - 6 apartments to ask about:
	- Availability
	- Application process
	Read the Relocation Guide and Student Affairs Housing website for how to sign a lease and what information to get from the building management.
	Find out what utilities you need to arrange yourself
	Locate the transportation options nearby (bus lines, etc.)		